Transforming Urban Karnataka

A Workshop for Leaders of Urban Local Bodies in Karnataka

Date: November 21 -22 | Venue: ITC Windsor, Bengaluru
Last date for registration: 10th November, 2016
The workshop is aimed at bringing together political and administrative city leaders to catalyse systemic reform for transformative change through case-studies, debate and class room sessions.

Who should attend the programme

The workshop is tailored for a select group of dynamic political and administrative leaders representing Municipal Corporations of Karnataka.

Participants will especially benefit from the opportunity to interact with their peers from other corporations in Karnataka.

The Programme

The two day residential workshop will delve into the systemic interventions that are necessary to address the challenges facing Karnataka’s cities. Sessions will cover aspects related to:

What is the experience from the implementation of the Tender S.U.R.E project in Bengaluru?

How can city revenues be enhanced?

How can citizen participation be facilitated in the budget preparation process and preparation of city plans?

What role can technology play in improving citizen engagement and quality of life in Karnataka’s cities?
Programme Dates

The programme will commence on Monday, the 21st of November, 2016 at the ITC Windsor, Bengaluru and conclude on Tuesday, the 22nd of November, 2016.

The medium of interaction will be Kannada and English.

Programme Fee

The programme is being offered free of cost. Accommodation will be provided to participants only. Travel expenses will be reimbursed on actuals.

About Janaagraha

Janaagraha Centre for Citizenship and Democracy is a non-profit organisation based in Bengaluru. We aim to improve quality of life in urban India, through systemic change. Janaagraha sees ‘quality of life’ as comprising two distinct, but inter-related aspects – ‘quality of urban infrastructure and services’ and ‘quality of citizenship’. We work with both citizens and government to catalyse civic participation from the grassroots up, as well as governance reforms from the top down.
